

Quality Policy Statement

Ekspan Limited have defined and documented its policy and objectives for and commitment to, quality, appropriate to the purpose of the organisation, ensuring that the policy is communicated, understood, and implemented throughout the organisation.

The company is committed to a policy of continual improvement to improve the effectiveness of the quality system in all aspects of its services. The company achieve this by continuous monitoring and improvement of the key processes as referenced in the quality manual.

Our quality objectives are designed to be consistent with this policy and provide the basis for improvements which add real and genuine value to our company. The objectives and targets are reviewed periodically through the quality review meeting and to adopt the objectives of the company policy, the Quality system is based on a process approach. These objectives and targets on quality matters are communicated to all necessary parties by the most appropriate medium.

It is essential that every employee of this Company is aware of our commitment to Quality Assurance, for which a manual has been prepared containing our quality procedures and implemented to conform to national quality standards. All employees are required to co-operate with the quality representative to maintain the effectiveness of the system. We commit to a full training and assessment system to ensure the development and realisation of our quality objectives. The training process will be reviewed and amended as part of the periodic management meetings and reviews.

A Quality Manual is available for all personnel involved in the management and inspection of quality on a day-to-day basis, and relevant sections will also be made available to individuals to enable them to take appropriate action required to operate the Quality System.

Any suggestions that may lead to an improvement in the quality of our work should be forwarded directly to the undersigned.

This policy is documented in our quality manual and steps have been taken to ensure that it is understood, implemented, and maintained at all levels within the Company. The Directors and Quality Manager will have responsibility for ensuring that this statement of our policy and objectives will be reviewed periodically at the quality review meetings.
